

Please do not let the "no call" list be eroded. If the banks and such want to call people and solicit their business let them include notice on their application and allow each individual choose whether or not they want to be solicited. I imagine more will decline and thus this is the reason the banks have not done so. Just because I utilize someones business does not mean I want the to call and solicit. It is the peoples choice not the banks!!!!